

Simon VS THE MONSTER

There's no such thing as monsters!
Simon knows this is true
Why, Simon is too brave to be scared
By anything that said boo

And though monsters really aren't real,
Simon is not afraid to admit
There was something in this room
She didn't like – not one little bit

In a flash, Simon knew what to do
Monsters hate light – she had her clue.
If she could just switch that switch over there
The monster will run! Boo – hoo - hoo!

So Simon did it –
She switched on the light
And what she saw made her laugh
And giggle with delight

It was just a mosquito
And it was funny and small
Of course, Simon always knew
There were never monsters at all

It was six feet tall, maybe more
And had eyes big as cats
It had fangs and huge claws
And looked meaner than ten rats

Simon peeked out from under her bed
And saw a shadow bigger than big ever was!
Maybe monsters aren't real, Simon thought
But it made an awfully loud BUZZ BUZZ
